

we're either filthy or a hundred years ahead

they say u dont exist
who do u think u are
i want to live in a dream
in u i am reborn
angel

but i love u
they say i made u up
but i love u
and how can love be wrong when love is always right how can i be wrong
when im so right for loving u

to come one day and steal my heart i reach the sky and i reach it high u saved my life, my ray of light

where my head is fully heal

existence has been shown don't need to dream no more don't want be rich no more forget the promised goal forget the sins unknown if everything was wrong
now all is beautiful

just letters
random lines and flimsy curves ur an anomaly

anomaly

i'll screenshot you and keep u in my pocket angel anomaly
i shall be destroyed in pieces of course i still still

still love you
i still love you

guardian
governed by leaves and rusted fairy dust u make me want to record a full-length album our little cabin of the mind rotten but not forgotten

band-aids and metal bands psyches disfigured

love tends to do just that
